Hurlburt Field Information, Tickets & Travel

YOUR PASSPORT TO THRILLS, SAVINGS & GLOBAL JOURNEYS

Contributed by Lauren Cortez Elizardo
Layout by Emily MacDonald

Traveling the world can be right at your fingertips with Hurlburt Information, Tickets and Travel (ITT). They understand the different needs and budgets and this team makes sure you get where you want to go. Planning any vacation can be hectic and nerve-wracking while deciding what hotel fits your needs, where to eat and making the most of your trip. Whether you want to travel across the ocean or around the local area, they have you covered.

Jennifer Kendall, Rosela Young and Kayley Carpenter make the process easier with years of ITT experience and traveling as former military spouses, these ladies are there every step of the way! "When you come to us, you're also coming for our expertise – you might not always save a ton of money, but you're talking to someone who can help you make informed decisions on your travels", says Mrs. Young. They have gained tips, tricks and valuable information that will help you create lasting memories. "I've been a military spouse for nine years; I've used ITT and gotten the benefits – I know what it's like trying to plan around TDYs and deployments. It helps us relate and assist the clients a little better", says Mrs. Carpenter.

MUSEUM OF MUGGLE CURIOSITIES

They pride themselves on going above and beyond to help with itineraries, communications and assisting with mapping transportation routes. Mrs. Kendall has visited 26 countries and 25 states, she uses her vast travel knowledge to aide customers with enhancing their travel experiences. "I've learned so many different websites to use and I know so many parts of the world in detail that I can help people travel anywhere - being a military spouse we have the ability to travel and use these services", says Mrs. Kendall.

Are you planning to visit overseas or wanting to set sail? They work with several major tour groups and over 15 ocean and river cruise lines, so you are assured that your trip is one for the books at the best price. If you're looking to travel across stateliness, they offer Go City Passes to different states that allow you to visit different attractions for lower prices.

This agency offers an abundance of services from Delta Vacation Packages, Sandal and Beaches Resorts, Disney World, Universal Studios and the Gulfarium. You can book a Delta Vacation package and visit anywhere in the world that Delta flies, while choosing flights, hotels, and/or car rentals. Sandal and Beaches Resorts ensures you're getting the most bang for your buck on these luxury vacations with a military discount only offered through ITT. They offer ticket sales for attractions like Disney World and Universal Studios and can also help build and book vacation packages to the resorts. However, if you are exploring local, they can get tickets to attractions like the Gulfarium Marine Adventure Park.

Utilizing these services isn't just a perk for active-duty members and DoD civilians, when you purchase tickets or trips a percentage comes back into our very own base events and activities provided by the Force Support Squadron. To keep up with Hurlburt ITT and all thing tickets, trips and deals follow them on Facebook at Hurlburt Information, Tickets and Travel. With ITT you can always expect tax free and no fees from them, so you spend to create lasting memories wherever your adventure takes you.

“Traveling transforms your mindset and broadens your perspective about life.”
- Jennifer Kendall

INFORMATION, TICKETS AND TRAVEL

ROSELA YOUNG

has been apart of the Hurlburt ITT team for 5 years. Her favorite things about working at ITT are meeting new people from the military community, sharing her travel experiences with them, and helping them plan their future travels. She says to those who are new to Hurlburt, or have never used ITT before, that Hurlburt's ITT offer tickets at many popular attractions at a discounted rated, whether it be in the local area like FWB or Destin, or even in Orlando, Georgia or Tennessee attractions! What's different about Hurlburt ITT compared to those outside of base, is that all of their products are TAX FREE! She has enjoyed having such a fun job that connects her to people and to be apart of them achieving their travel goals.

KAYLEY CARPENTER

has been with Hurlburt ITT for 3 years. While working at ITT, she loves helping the military community, who work so hard, plan fun and exciting vacations so they can take a break from work stress and spend quality time with their families and friends. She says, "As a military spouse myself, I understand the importance of getting away to reconnect with your family and friends." She believes anyone who visits will surely get a bang for their buck, as they offer the military community amazing deals and expert insight on a variety of different experiences and vacations. They can also get deals on resorts and vacation packages for Disney and Universal hotels. She is proud to say that they get the best rates for hotels, cruises and vacation packages!

JENNIFER KENDALL

has been with Hurlburt ITT for 5 years, and loves to share her love and knowledge of travel with all who visits ITT! She says that one of the best things about Hurlburt ITT, on top of discounts, is we can help with your search for great vacation packages, cruises, all-inclusive and multi-city tours throughout Europe. "We stand out because we understand the dynamics of the military community. We understand that a military member needs a vacation to decompress, especially during times of deployment and other high stress situations," she says. Prior to working at Hurlburt ITT, she was the office manager/tour leader at the SHAPE Travel Office in Belgium, as well as managing, planning, and executed trips throughout Europe, Africa and Russia with NATO military members.

A CONVERSATION WITH 2023

SOUTHEAST MILITARY YOUTH OF THE YEAR

Hannah Wilson of Hurlburt Field Youth Center

What has been your favorite part of the Youth of the Year experience?

My favorite part of the Youth of the Year experience has been the connections and relationships I have made. Coming into this program was daunting at first but I was able to make friends and network with a multitude of people. Every youth that I encountered was friendly and welcoming and not only did that ease my nerves, it helped me to enjoy my entire experience.

What advice would you give other Youth who are interested in the Youth of the Year program?

One piece of advice I would give is to simply be yourself and speak up for what you believe in. The people in the Youth of the Year program want to get to know you and they want to know your story. Nobody can tell your story like you can. Always stay true to yourself and don't be afraid to stand out.

What is something you learned about yourself while going through this process?

Through this process, I learned that I am more capable of doing great things in life than I ever thought possible. At the beginning of this process, I was scared to speak up and meet new people; after months of working with my advisor and my family, I was able to receive the title of 2023 Florida Military Youth of the Year and 2023 Southeast Military Youth of the Year.

What's next? How will you use your platform to inspire other youth?

Moving forward, I aspire to graduate high school and move on to college. I want to major in early childhood education and using that degree I will become a kindergarten teacher. Youth are our future and as a teacher, I want to inspire children to be the best version of themselves. I am also extremely passionate about mental health, especially in youth. Mental health is a highly discussed topic in adults yet there is not much conversation about the children who struggle with those issues. Using my Youth of the Year platform, I want to raise awareness for mental health in young children.

What advice would you give younger military youth who are struggling with the military lifestyle? Moving, Deployments, Changing Schools, etc.

One thing I want other Military youth to know is that being a military child is hard but it gets better. Constantly having to move is difficult but it teaches many valuable skills such as resilience and adaptability. I also want military kids to know that they are not alone. All military kids go through similar struggles mentally but talking to other youth in the same situation can help.

How did youth programs help you become the person you are today?

My Youth Programs helped me become the person I am today because they helped me unlock my true potential and they helped me find my passion for youth and education. They taught me leadership skills which have helped me to this day and my Youth Programs showed me that everyone has a voice. Without my Youth Center, I don't believe I would have found my voice or my ability to use my voice to make an impact.

Hannah's Youth of the Year Journey:
Hannah competed and won the title of 2023 Florida Military Youth of the Year in April, and received a $2,500 college tuition scholarship.

Next, Hannah traveled to Atlanta to compete in regionals and won the title of 2023 Southeast Military Youth of the Year in June, and received a $20,000 college tuition scholarship.

Lastly, she traveled to Washington D.C. and competed for the National title. She was 1 of 5 finalists. She did not win the National title, however walked away with another $12,800 in spending money for college, to be distributed over the 4 years she attends.
